

“O my beloved son! If there has to be an action equivalent to the weight of a mustard seed (hidden) within a rock or (scattered somewhere) in the heavens or (somewhere) in the earth, Allaah would (locate it and) bring it (for reward or punishment in the Aakhirah). Without doubt, Allaah is (the Knower of) the subtle (has Knowledge of the most intricate and subtle details), Informed (nothing is hidden from Him).”

(Surah 31 Surah Luqmaan Verse 16)

“O my beloved son! Establish salaah, instruct (others to do) good, forbid (them from) evil and patiently endure whatever (difficulty) afflicts you. Verily this (ability to bear difficulties with patience) is from among the most resolute of matters (demanding the most courage and determination).”

(Surah 31 Surah Luqmaan Verse 17)

“Do not (out of pride) turn your face away from people (refusing to listen to them) and do not walk arrogantly on earth. Verily Allaah detests every arrogant boaster.”

(Surah 31 Surah Luqmaan Verse 18)

“Moderate your walk (be calm, composed and modest) and lower your voice (speak gently to people). Indeed, the most hateful sound is the braying of a donkey (which ends in a high pitch that grates one’s ears. People should therefore avoid speaking in this manner).”

(Surah 31 Surah Luqmaan Verse 19)

“O you who have Imaan! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire (of Jahannam), the fuel of which is people and stones. Harsh (uncompromising) and (extremely) strong angels (who feel no pity) are appointed over it (the fire to watch over those being punished) who never disobey what Allaah commands them and who carry out exactly what they are instructed (to do). (The people of Jahannam therefore have no way of convincing these angels to lessen their punishment.)
(Surah 66 Surah Tahreem verse 6)

The right of our children

The right of our children

The first and foremost right of a child is that he/she has an Islamic upbringing. Parents are responsible for their religious and spiritual training.

The parents are responsible for the religious education of the child. Children must be taught the basics of Islamic doctrine that includes Aqida (beliefs), Seerah of our blessed Prophet (Sallahu Alaihi Wasallam), basics of what is lawful and what is unlawful, the Fiqh with regards to Salat, fasting, etc...

Our children should be educated that Christmas & Easter beliefs (adopted by the Christians) which are taught in schools are incorrect

Christian's incorrect belief is that on Good Friday (which is the Friday before Easter), Jesus was executed by crucifixion. His body was taken down from the cross, and buried in a cave.

The tomb was guarded and an enormous stone was put over the entrance, so that no-one could steal the body.

On the following Sunday, some women visited the grave and found that the stone had been moved, and that the tomb was empty.

Jesus himself was seen that day, and for days afterwards by many people. His followers realised that God had raised Jesus from the dead.

Correct Belief (Islamic belief)

The Jews wanted to Kill Hadhrat Issa (A.S) but Allah Ta'aala saved him and raised him alive up to the heavens. The Jews did NOT kill Hadhrat Issa (A.S) nor did they nail him to a cross. Hadhrat Issa (A.S) will descend to the world before the day of Judgement.

Did you know?

- Parents can withdraw children from assemblies
- Teachers may withdraw from assemblies
- The school's annual prospectus should carry information about collective worship and how parents may withdraw their children from it
- The above apply to state community schools. Church or faith-based schools will have their own way of applying the law within their specific context.

Advise of Hadhrat Luqmaan (A.S) to his son

When Luqmaan advised his son saying, "O my beloved son! Do not ascribe partners to Allaah. Without doubt, Shirk is the worst injustice (because it equates unworthy beings with Allah.)"

(Surah 31 Surah Luqman Verse 13)
